NINTH AVENUE HIGH SCHOOL

HENDERSONVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

FOREWORD

The 1960 Yearbook Staff feels that many years from now, when school memories have faded and experiences and faces have been almost forgotten, in a reminiscent mood you may go to your attic and pull from your stack of text books and papers the 1960 "Tiger."

Then you will smile and even chuckle for once again YOU WILL HAVE THESE MOMENTS TO REMEMBER.

DEDICATION

With deep appreciation, we the members of the Yearbook Staff dedicate this Yearbook to our librarian and glee club directoress, Mrs. Dusenbury.

The students at Ninth Avenue High School are appreciative of her resourcefulness as a librarian, her patience and understanding as a teacher and music directoress; and her loyalty and devotion as a friend.

We wish for Mrs. Dusenbury many more successful years at Ninth Avenue High School.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Ninth Avenue High School
Hendersonville, North Carolina

We, the graduating class of 1960, exhibiting both sound mind and body and fully aware of the task before us, do make the following bequeaths and declare this our last will and testament to be carried out upon our graduation.

ARTICLE I

To our parents, we leave our fondest appreciation for the many sacrifices they have made that we might attain this goal. We shall aspire to fulfill their fondest dreams.

ARTICLE II

To the superintendant and the board of education, we leave our appreciation for the system of education which we realize will be of great help to us for the rest of our lives.

ARTICLE III

To our principal, Mr. C. H. Jones, we leave our undying gratitude for the marvelous service he has rendered both the school and community since his arrival here. We wish him many happy and successful years at Ninth Avenue.

ARTICLE IV

To the faculty, we leave peace of mind and our sincere thanks for your tireless efforts in trying to mold our futures.

ARTICLE V

To the striving Juniors, we leave the right to accept the title of Seniors upon our graduation and to exercise all priviledges thereof with dignity.

ARTICLE VI

To the Sophomores, we leave our fondest hopes that they may use wisely their last two years. We admonish them to make friends carefully, use their time wisely, and study diligently.

ARTICLE VII

To the Freshmen, we leave our determination to strive for good scholarship, in an effort to eventually become graduates of Ninth Avenue High School.
